how many sorats of time are there

Two camman and triple time
What is camman time) an even number ~~of~~ parts in a bar)
What is triple time an add number of parts in a bar How is time marked at the begining of every peice of music sometimes with a c which signifies camman time the bar then cantains the value of a semibrieve or 4 cratchets in a bar,

How do the figures refer to the semibreve 2 in a bar 4 dimed

if the number is less than 6 it is simple but if it 6 or more than 6 it is compound. No two cratchets may be caunted as four quavers &c it must be caunted by the value of triplets quantity of music cantained in a bar 4 two fald or double three fald or triple four fald or quadruple ~~and~~ the sixfold or sextuple

Music—

Music! oh! how faint, how weak,
Language fades before thy spell!
Why should feeling ever speak,
When thou canst breath her soul so well?
Friendship's balmy words may feign,
Mother's are ev'n more false than they
Oh! tis only music's strain,
Can sweetly soothe, and not betray

II

Is there a heart that music cannot melt
Alas! how is that rugged heart forlorn
Is there, who ne'er those mystic transports felt
Of solitude and melancholy born!
He needs not woo the Muse; he is her scorn,
The sophists rope of cobweb he shall twine;
Mope o'er the schoolman's peevish page; or mourn,
And delve for life in Mammon's dirty mine;
Sneak with the scoundrel fox, or grunt with glutton swine,

III

By Music, minds an equal temper know,
Nor swell too high, nor sink too low,
If in the breast tumultuous joys arise,
Music her soft assuasive voice applies,
Or, when the soul is press'd with cares,
Through every pulse the music stole
And held sublime communion with the soul;
Wrung from the coyest breast the imprison'd sigh,
And kindled rapture in the coldest eye,

Preposterous, fool! that never read so far
To know the cause why music was ordain'd,
Was it not to refresh the mind of man
After his studies, or his usual pain,
Warriors she fires with animated sounds,

Pours balm into the bleeding soljer's wound,
Do but note a wild and wanton herd
Or race of youthful and unhandled colts,
Fetching mad bounds, bellowing and neighing loud,
Which is the hot condition of their blood;
If they but hear perchance a trumpet sound,
Or any air of music touch their ears
You shall preceive them make a mutual stand,
Their savage eyes turn'd to a modest gaze,
By what, by the sweet power of music-

At the sound of music Melancholy lifts her head,
Morpheus rouses from his bed,
Sloth unfolds her arms and wakes,
List'ning envy drops her snakes;
Intestine war no more our passions wage
And giddy factions hear away their rage.
The man that hath ~~on~~ no music in himself,
Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils;
The motions of his spirit are dull as night
And his affections dark as Erebus;
Let no such man be trusted,
Music sphere-descended maid,
Friend of pleasure, Wisdom's aid!

Kind and beloved Eldress, We thank thee over & over,
For the burden's thou hast borne for us,
A rich reward is now in store,
Tis with mingled joy and sorrow,
This anniversery we hail
For we feel that on the morrow,
Without thee, our strength would fail,

As time is swiftly pasing.
And the dayes go one by one,
We feel yed somthing tells us,
That the time must surely come,
When such boon to mortals given
As has been ours to know,
Must by time's rude be severed.
E'en now we feel the blow,

But oh we pray kind heaven,
To stay this cruel hand,
That would tear you from our presence,
And leave us, alone to stand,
Oh stay a little longer,
Dont send the arrow now,
In time we may grow stronger,
And in meeke submition bow

4.

But we pray kind heaven to guide us,
For we feel that we are weak,
A strong arm to walk beside us,
And a sheltring power we seeke,
Yet we would be courages,
And put forth all our zeal,
Well knowing that in duty,
Our wounds must surely heal,

Rock of ages shield O shield me
When the angry Billows roll
Oftentimes hast though concealed me
By thine own supreme controle
Sure defence and firm reliance
Of the ancients saints of God
Bow my spirit in complcance
To my saviors chastning rod

Rock of ages firm and strong as Heavens eternal pillars are
In thy strength Ill trust as long as God will hear and answer prayer
I am needy and dependent
O ye holy Angels come
To my cries O be atedant
Bring my soul some little crumbe

Rock of ages O protect me
When affliction bears me down
Let no earthly charms affect me
Nothing rob me of my crown
Help my soul to stand unshaken
Never yeald my thots to sin

By the cross which Christ has taken
Life eternal I shall win

Rock of ages Rock of ages
Heavenly fortress sure and blest
Where no tempest ever rages
May my weary spirit rest
Yonder but celestials portals
O how beautiful they shine
There with glorified immortals
Is a home ane it is mine
Then thy shadow rests eternal
Over Heavens sequested Land
With perfumes from flowers verna
Shall my spirit there be found
There with kindred souls united Shall I walk the bowers of bliss
With sweet peace and song delighted
Such bright glory who could miss

Earnest Petition

Lord be pleased to bless thy people
While assembled in this place
Clothe us with thy holy power
Fill us with thy love and grace
Give us courage to press forward
Brake the bands with which we're bound
Seperate us farther wider
From the wolves that prowl around

Tho we're tried from every quarter
Donot give thy flock away
Let each faithful son and daughter
Hold thier claim from day to day
For this present world of sin
Thousands now for the same reason
Quit the path of life we're in

But the truth has long been tested
Honest souls who give up all
For the gospel and the kingdom
Did not Do not can not fall
Then press on ye sons of Zion

Daughters too be wide awake
For it is the Fathers pleasure
That you should the kingdom take

O world of death adiew for ever
Naught in thee to fill the soul
Peace & comfort reigneth never Where tempestuous Billows Roll
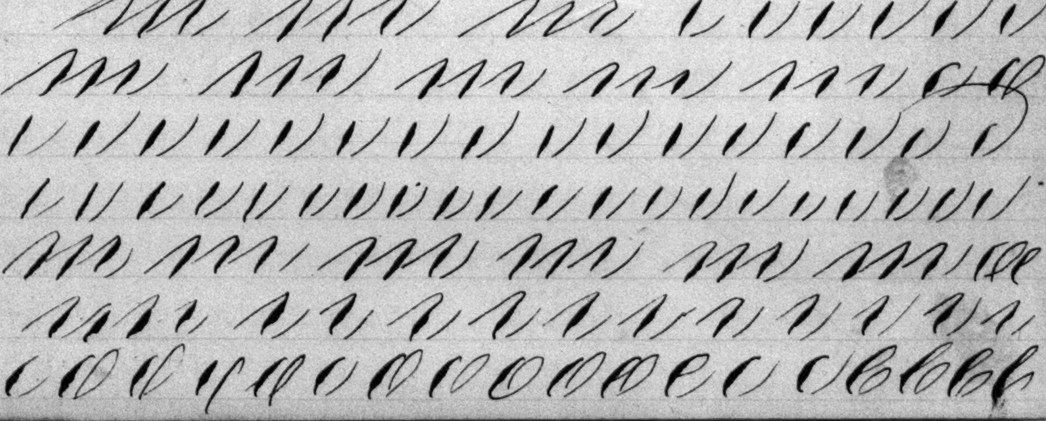
Time is passing we are moving
To that land whence none return
May we all be true & faithful
Puerst Gospel truths to learn

Realms of Bliss & joys eternal
May we reach that blest a bode
Roll on roll sweet Love supernal
Guide us safely in the road
There well join the living concert
Praise shall ever be our theme
While the soul reviving waters
Flow in one Eternal stream

Malinda Slayton

Tho many trials I may meet
While here on earth I stay
And foaming tides against me beat
While here traveling on my way
Yet I will gain the victory
If onward I do move
And gain that gift of purity
Which brings sweet peace and love

I know that god is just and true
And gives an equal share
To every one that will endure
And every trial bear
But sure as we one order slight
We'll miss a blessing there
Each is a heavenly lamp of light
That each should keep with care



Wait I Patience

Wait O ye saints upon the Lord
In peace and patience wait
Let resignation be your ward
And walk in order straight—
My wings shall shelter you in love
Not one of you shall fail
Who keep the spirit of the dove
And walk in wisdoms vale

Tho many weary hours may roll
And souls be tried and toiled
Yet O thou worn & weary soul
I'm ever at thy side
Be patient and confide in me
For I will not forsake
Or ever ever suffer thee
One deadly draught to take

I wisdom am your Mother dear
And know your every grief
And in good time will I appear
And grant you sweet relief
Let no despair or clouds of doubts

Your peace of mind destroy
For soon youll raise the thrilling shout
Of everlasting joy
O C Hampton

Prais The Lord

In freedoms pure way I want to be going
I love to be free going from the bondage of sin
Tis freedom and love I want to feel flowing O freedom sweet feedom I gather it in

I love to be free in the gosple of Mother
I love to unite in sweet songs divine
Prais the lord Im happy forever
O freedom this beautiful treasure is mine

Farewell earthly joys
From my soul flee away
I covet something higher
That will not so soon decay
Something that is lasting
That forever will endure
Endurable treasure holy & pure
And by the cross Ill gain it & make

It my own By the cros Ill keep it
And wear a shining crown This to me Is comfort this is real joy
Something that is permanet this World cannot destroy
Jane Slayton

O Heavenly Father to thee I now pray
Thy strength & protection I need To help me to walk in the straight narrow way And from sin & temptation be freed
Yea while thro lifes dark vale I journey
I pray for thy blessing & thy strength
That I may be able to be an over comer
And over all evil triumphantly raign

Harvest Home

Lets have a joyful harvest home
And sing with merry cheer
The Summer labor now has gone
The Autumn does appear
The fields of waveing golden grain
In bountious plenty given
Have yealded to the reaper's scythe
Are to the garners driven

The brawny farmer with his toil
Is happier than th King
He does not feel the morbid cloy
Which ease and pleasure bring His joys are pure his sleeps is sound
He wakes at early dawn
And coming forth his visage greets
The waiving fields of corn

Now in their rural bliss we share
Of every grade and call
And feel our rightful princely fare
Spread for the great & small
Then swell the notes of joy & glee

And to the banquet come
Well have a merry time to day
A happy harvest home

Onward Onward lets be going
To that peaceful happy home
Where all sorrow & affliction
Never never never come
Where peace & love are freely flowing
Like a fountain pure and clean
Where the saints to gather mingle
In the sweetest songs divine

Come my beloved companions come.
Lets go marching onward home
To canaans peaceful happy shore
Where parting will be known no mo
What a joyful meeting the will be
With Children so happy and free
There in that beautiful land serene
No earthly troubles will interven

Farewell farewell dear brethren and sisters farewell we shall soon meet again
O take my love my thanks and blessing
Take it as a jewel fair
With you I have gained this treasure
Tis a robe that Angels wear
Farewell farewell O let my spirit go free I long to join the Angel band in sweet eternity

Hope For The Desponding

Ive come Ive come say's Mother dear
To comfort the weary their hearts to cheer
Ill lead them thrô this sorrowful vale
Let nothing thats vile their spirits enshade
She speaks of hope to the fainting heart
With a voice of promis her love imparts
Saying grief depart you now may rest
Your souls now join the sphere of the blest

Hope And Faith

Iam coming dearest Mother
To thy home in relms of bliss
Where fragrant flowers blossom
In a fairer world than this

The seed which thou hast scattered
Have taken deeply root
And when thou comest to gather in Thou will find a bundant fruit over

I am coming dearest Mother
This rankling pain with in Will soon dessolve this mortal clay
And free the soul from s

Then free indeed the soul will be
To soar on wings of love
Released from pain from sorrow free
To dwell in bliss above

Come forth in spirit beauty
To unfold the flowers with in
And take me to that mansion
Where all is free from sin

Emily P.

In fervent prayer and deep desire
O Lord I look to the
For that redeeming holy fire
Which sets the faithful spirit free
May heavenly spirits gather near
With comfort and with peace
And purity my soul to cheer
This is its self a heavenly feast

O Lord my soul is hungry now
And reaches unto the
In low contrition Lord I bow
And all thats high and lofty flee
In true repentance I will seek Thy favor and thy love
In kindness and forgiveness meek
Thy love and faithful mercies prove

May henceforth all I have and am Devoted be to the
A faithful follower of the lamb
In perfect spotless purity
All other feelings words and thots
And pleasures I will flee
And calmly yield to what Im taught
And leave the issue all to thee

My time is passing fast away
And never can return
And O that I might watch and pray
And every moment wisdom learn
Increase my faith and confidence
O God of all the Heavens and earth
In every step thy providance In mercy hence may call me forth

We dwell in zions goodly land
Replete with every blessing
And thó weare a little band
All things we are possessing Before us is a glorious prize
Of free and full salvation
And our reward we realise
What ever be our station

Chorus

Sing glory Sing glory Sing glory
To those who bare their cross

Our labors satan may repell
Or think to haunt our regions
But shortly he'll be swept to hell
With all his fearful legions
The trumpet loudly sounds for war
And God ~~does~~ has raised his banner
And Call his people from a far
Unto their great commander
Chorus sing glory

Our inward foes we have to hate
And fight with dreadful fury
And turn the battle to the gates
Ore never go to glory
We must not lay our weapons down
Nor let our courage falter
Or finaly we'll miss the crown the terms can neve alter
sing glory &c
But if like warriors brave we stand
We'll tell the exulting story
We march'd to gather hand in hand
And fot Our way to glory
Come Brethern come & sistre to

In union let us travel
And fight with zeal & courage new
The World the flesh & devil
Sing glory &c
Ere long the battle will be oer
And we shall all be landed
Where pain & sorrow comes no more
But peace and unions blended
In that eternal land of peace
In all thats sweet and plesant
From age to age we will increace
And God will ever be plesant
Composed by W Hampton

Heavens Call

Heaven now is calling
O come come away
Angels are inviteing
Do be advancing

From the holy fountain
Let us all be drinking
Watter of eternal lifer
Thats never never failing

Im thankful Ive found
This pure liveing way
And in it I will travel
Both night and day
I will move in the gift
Of gods holy order
And be more faithful
In the cause of mother

To gain my soul salvation
With this lovely band
Who are marching on thier way
To the holy promis land
Where all is delightful
And purity doth reign
And nought but true comfor
Will ever remain

Im thankful Ive found
This pure liveing way
And in it I will travel
Both night and day
I will move in the gift
Of Gods holy Order And be more faithful

I can bow I can bend
I can be limber to

My home tis in a pleasant place
Among believers cast
Remote from sorrow's sad embrace
The joys that cannot last.
Hope blooms eternal in this pla Sphere
And sweet contentment sings
Beneath the sheen of heaven clear
Love spreads her glitering wings

And as my years of youth are told None let me ever loose
Were I to gain a world of gold
I'd still this precept choose
Love union peace and pure delight
Shall then like dew descend
On all my pathway shed their light
Nor cease when time shall end

The Call

Be awake my Soul be living
Tis a call of God to the Mooving onward mooving forward
Keep thy faith and calling
I am seeking for a treasure
Far beyond the things of time
Puriety & joy Eternal Heavenly & Sublime

My home is in a pleasant place
M Among believers Cast
Remote from sorrows sad embrace

A Funeral hymn Sacred to the memory of brother. A. Kitchel. 1860

Hear the knocking O how steady
Do the solemn accent fall
Saying be ye also ready
To receive the parting call
Tis alass a fleeting hour
All the time allotted here
But amoment from the flow
Till the fruit is ripe and sear

Lo Our mothe calls the aged
One by one of her first born
Who with faith and zeal engagued
In her work at early morn
Thus it is with our dear brother
In her cause was ever true
Honered he the name of mother
In what ere he had to do

He was not ashamed to own her
In the face of sinful man
Always felt it was an honor
To acknowledge mother Ann

Now She calls her son most sweetly
And her voice he seemed to know
Wound up all his work completely
And prepared himself to go

Zealous, open, candid, prayerful
Early late in duty found
Kind obliging Saveing careful
Traits in him which did abound
Brother for thy good behavior
In the cause for many years
Hear the voice of Christ the Saviour
Let them dry up all your tears

"Well done good & faithful servant
Thou art a beloved Son
In my cause hast thou been fervent Nobly hast thou fout & won
Come recieve a priscless treasure Garnered up in store for the
Which it is the father's pleasure
That thou hast for ever more

"We have Shared thy love & blessing
Felt thy Strength & life & power

Tis a worth gift thats worth possesing
Worth retaining every hour
Farewell brother in the Spirit
Farewell in the bons of love
Go receive, what thou dost merit
In the pure realms above

Furneral Hymn

A feeling comes oer us but not all of sadness
Or sorrow or sighing or mouring or grief
But that of commingled sorrow & gladness
Which but to express may afford some relief
The occasion on which were convened togather
Is not of small moment to any one here
In one sense tho cheering yet still in another
Must draw from each other soul an affectionate tear

So great is the worth of the lovely depated
No pencil nor language nor tounge can portray
So noble so true & so firm & kind hearted
So self-sacrificing by night and by day
Her epitaph's written - her funeral's spoken
In all the good actions and words of her life
She vowed a great vow & she kept it unbroken
Till fully released from terrestrial strief

We cant but rejoice with this true overcomer
For the triumphant victory her soul has achieved
She's gained a reward that no one can take from her
And now from earth's conflict her soul is retrieved
In person no longer with us she may linger

But still her departure must cause some regret
Long, long may we point out with memory's finger
The righteous – the godly example she set

She fill'd up her days with pure heavenly graces
Which to the last breath her bright soul did adorn
Her life, with the life thats to come interlaces
And few are more faithful that yet have been born
Tho gone she will live in the hearts & affections
Of all who have witnessed her faithfulness here
To such her example will be a protection
If followed – to such will her spirit draw near

So then our beloved we would not restrain the
From tasting those pleasures for which thou hast yearn'd
We love the too well – Ah too well to detain the
From grasping those treasures so faithfuly earned
But leave O do leave thy bright mantle upon us
Of wisdom of firmness, of meekness – of truth
Thy patience thy charity, take them – not from us
That we may be blessed, both aged and youth

A welcome loud welcome from Angels now greet thee
So precious beloved to their kind embrace
We realize now that bright Spirits do meet thee

To go with thee home to thy sweet resting place
Farewell to thee then we repeat with emotion
Of tenderness love and a filial regard
O may'st tho' repose in loves fathomless Ocean
When heavens sweet pleasures can never be marred

H. L. Eads. March 7 1858

O give to others glittering gold O give them glory's prize
But give to me as years unfold the hope that neve dies
Let others seek in pleasures wild the joys that flee away
But give to me kind heavens smiles that brightens all the day

Let others seek with Lords & Kings the friendship of an hour
Give me the love the gospel brings & let me feel its power
O give to me that better part hope faith & carity
Give me a kind and tender heart a spirit kind & free

E. Leggett. Dec. 10 1860

Shining Light

While the light of God is shining
I will gather a precious store
When it may cease there is no divining
Sorrow may loom in our road befor
But if we are faithful to gather
Hours of sorrow then may ~~rol~~ roll.
God in his love will calm the weather

And the billows of grief controle
O. C. Hampton 1861

Faint—

Beautiful Prayer

. roll on

When the dark clouds hang o'er us and affliction —
May the Lord helps us to stand through the impending storme
Let us walk in the valley where protection is found
Keep a union that holy on this consecrated ground
Harvard Mass 1858

Angels Voice

Think O think of what is right
And then the wrong you'll be forsakeing
Shun the darkness love the light
Of truth & love the & life partakeing
While you rest or when you rise
Reflect reflect be wise be wise

O be faithful day by day
For time is short tis Short at longest Weaker ones may come away
To day may also come the strongest
Thousands pass away from Earth
When mourning takes the place of mirth

Oh! can nought from heaven impress
The mind of neither son nor daughter
Make them pant for righteousness
As doth the thirsting Hart for water
Must inferior things destroy
The very heaven they might enjoy

Hark! O hear the Angels voice
The Angels voice is still entreating
That you may with them rejoise
Rejoise in a celestial meeting
Let not word nor deed estrange
Remember, O! the change! the change!

Earthly mortals. Angels be
For round & round the wheels are flying
Swift to set the spirit free
So live that you may gain by living
Live it now each day each hour
And so retain Gods life & power.

H. L. E. July, 1859

My peace laid up in heaven
Can never be diminished
It is a treasure given me
Untill my work is finished
And I go and I go
Leave this fleeting world behind me
There to share it with the blest
Where troubles cannot find me.
H. L. E. July 18. 59

Long Ago

O the love of Mother rolling
Fill my heart to overflowing
Worldly pleasures I an leaving
Nearing brighter glories

Iva bid ~~adue~~ adieu to Earthly kindred Long ago long ago, O this sacrifice most gloriou
Bears me anward all victorious
Golden treasures amply paying & eternal life ensuring with a dear relation
July 2nd 1851

Faint not fear not persevere on your way
Untill you reach the kingdom of Eternal glory

Home Of my Choice

Bright land where the pure are sojourning
Fond home where the weary have rest
Where Stars of the morning returning
Look lovingly down on the blest

O that is the land I am seeking
The home of the lovely & pure
With Angels glad jubilee keeping With loved ones bright hops to ensure Where day has no dark Cloud of sorrow
And night has no weariness there
Where gladness waits not for the morrow
To smile away sorrow & care
O that is the home I am seeking &c

Where happiness flows like a river
~~And~~ Union encircles above
The Saints who are happy forever
In bonds of affection and love
O that is the home &c

Where friends who have loved us are going
And hearts that are holy inclined

Where hops to fruition are growing
And puritys only divine
E. Leggett. U.V. 1861

The pure in Heart
How sweet to unite with the pure in heart
To blend with the Sperit of the free
Strongly cemented in bonds of pure love
Of this number I for one will be

Theres no joy on this earth I could ask
Nor honor and wealth I'd not claim
If I can possess a treasure with the just
And a home with the lowly obtain
Holy Mount. 1858

May I live more to God
May I dwell in his love
May my every action prove True devotion to his will

In that peaceful reigeon where Naught but kindred Spirits dwell
This is bliss let me be there, This my soul will fill Lines in memory of Rachel Lee who departed this life Nov. 19. 1858.

Once more has the great Archer sent An arrow from his quiver
His bow is ever ready bent
The ties of earth to sever
Anothe Spirit is released
From earth and all its sorrows
On whome has dawn'd a day of rest
And there is no tomberow.

Our friend & sister known & read
Of every fithful Spirit
In path of fithfulness did tread
And richly now does merit
A home of everlasting peace
Among the pure and holy
For such reward the Lord decrees
For all the meek and lowly

How sweet in peace to leave the earth
Without a fear or murmer
To bloom in brighter beauty forth
As flowers of glowing Summer

Forever freed from death and pain
To enter joys Supernal
To join with joy the halcyon Strain
Of peace and love Eternal

None but the just upright and pure
Shall reach the realms of glory
To none but such is heaven sure
Thus runs the Sacred Story
But those who all do Sacrifice
In death can feel no terrors
They have their portion with the wise
Reem'd from all their errors

Go Sister to thy pleasant home
For truly thou art worthy
Among the trees of life to roam
With those who've gone before thee
We bid thee a kind farewell
Our thanks and love we give thee
And Mother wi There Angels shall thy vitues tel
And Mother will recieve thee

Welcome for brother Daniel Bole

Welcome, most beloved brother
Welcome welcome to our Shore
O thou lovely child of mother
Welcome to our hearts once more
May no trying scenes distress you
May no labors give you pain
O may holy Angels bless you
While on Earth you do remain

Welcome also gospel kindred
Frome the South - Our friends so dear
Glad we are that nothing hindred
To prevent, your presence here
Now in love we'll flow together.
By pure links of union bound
Shelered by our holy Mother
While sweet love encircles round
Now we'll
Now we'll join our hearts together
To be good forever more
Not regarding wind or weather
But the gift that is before

If we should ther is no reason
That we cannot comfort take Instant in and out of season
Ever evil to forsake

Come my beloved companions Come
Lets go marching onward home
To Canaans peaceful happy Shore
Where parting will be known no more
What a joyful meeting then will be
With mothers Children So happy & free
There in that beautiful land Serene
No earthly troubles will intervene

Quiet Home

I've found a quiet home at last
On Zions peaceful Shore
To know my Soul hath peace with God
I ask for nothing more
I'll seek not for the wealth of Earth
I ask not for her fame
Just give me a home with the pure in heart
I ask no greater gain. Hancock

Lines in memory of Sister Mary Bedell
Who deceased in the Chh at Union, Vill
March 9th 1859.

One by one are called to leave us
From our hearts to seem rudely torn
But from this naught can relieve us
While on earth we do sojourn.
Lovely is the Spirit taken.
In this unexpected hour
One who'd every wrong forsaken
Full of love & truth & power

Early in lifes fitful morning
She forsook this world of Sin
Heavenly graces are addorning
Her - this treasure She did win
By a life of true Cross bearing
Now she's found a heavenly home
And a glorious Crown she wearing
Where no earthly sorrows come

Love to love with Angels joining
Bliss to bliss with Angels there
Clad in robes with Splendor shining

Such as only Angels wear
When our days on earth are ended
Greater Bliss we need not seek Than to find our spirits blended
There with all the pure and meek

Short indeed is the prbation
Thats allotted to us here
Children of the new Creation
Slack not - forward persevere
May we follow her example
For the Bliss which she has won
Daily on all evil trample
Then we'll hear the sound well done
Farewell Sister

A Prayer

In fervent prayer & deep desire
O Lord I look to the
For that reviving holy fire
Which sets the faithful spirits free
May heavenly spirits gather near
With comfort & with peace
And purity my soul to cheer
This is itself a heavenly feast.

'O Lord my soul is hungry now
And reacheth unto the

This song was given to El.^{d} Wm William R.

We have come to salute you
In the sirit of love
We have come here to greet you
In Mothers love love
O friends do, receive us
And give us your blessing
Our spirits to cheer
Now hark to our message
And hear what we say
We'r your bretherin & sisters
Who walk the same way
We feel concerned for the travel of sou
And are laburing to hasten
The gain of the fold
Will you unite with us
Our dear gospel friends
Add fuel to this fire
That will burn to the end
We have delivered our message
And now we'll retire
And go some wher else
To kindle this fire

Sweet Home

O my home sweet home in heaven
Where no earthly thing annoy
Where sweet peace & joy Eternal
Heavenly blessings ever flow

With bight Saints & holy Angels
I will share the promised feast
Come my near & dear companions
Here we find Eternal rest

Sweet Love

Sweet love as you roll
Let gather in a store
To feed my hungry soul
When the harvest time is o'er
For lo my precious time
How it swiftly glides away
Then let me be improving

A few words of advice from a friend

Reprove thy friend privately and commen him publicly Use the means & trust to God for the blessing. Rash counsel is unprofitable to him that givit it and hurtful to him that receiveth it, therefo be ready to hear, careful to entice – but slow to speak.

To give up a good cause because it wants success, is to turn infidel and apostate

Do not return the temper of ill natured people upon themselves nor treat them as they do others.

March 30. 1862.

The Burial of Sir John More

Not a drum was heard, not a furneral note
As his corpse to the rampart we hurried
Not a soldier discharged his farewell shot
O'er the grave where our hero we buried.

We buried him darkly, by dead of night.
The sod with our bayonet turning
By the strugling moonbeams misty light
And the lanterns dimly burning

No useless coffin enclose his breast
Nor in sheet, nor in shroud we bound him
But he lay like a warrior taking his rest
With his martial cloak around him.

Few and short were the words we said.
And we spoke not a word of sorrow) dead
But we stedfastly gazed on the face of the
And bitterly thot of the morrow

Slowly & sadly we laid him down
From the field of his fame fresh & gory
We carved not a line, we raised not a stone
But we left him alone in his glory

For A Sister. April. 13. 1862.

Sister there is a priceless gem
Within our reach that all may weare,
More glorious than a diadem,
And worthier of our constant care.
'Tis virtue, and I know tis thine,
For thou hast been what heaven required,
Then wear it ever, ever shine,
And be by all the good admired.
The rich and gay - since thou art poor
May scorn and mock thy humble lot
But virtue, trophies shall secure,
When their short triumphs are forgot.
O keep this gem of so much worth
That yields the bliss all else denies Twill make thee lovely on the earth
And crow thee glorious in the skies.

My Heart And I. May. 12. 1862.

Enough! we're tired, my heart and I.
We sit beside the headstone thus,
And wish that name were carved for us.
The moss reprints more tenderly
The hard types of the mason's knife
As heavens sweet life renews earths life
With wich we're tired, my heart and I

You see we're tired, my heart and I,
We dealt with books, we trusted men
And in our own blood drenched the pen
As if such colors could not fly,
We walked too straight for fortune's end,
We loved too true to keep a friend
At last we're tired, my heart and I.

How tired we feel, my heart and I,
We seem no use in the world;
Our fancies hung gray and uncurled
About men's eyes indifferently;
Our voice which thrilled you so will let You sleep; our tears are only wet:
What do we hear, my heart and I.

So tired, so tired, my heart and I!
It was not thus in that old time
When Ralph sat with me neath the lime
To watch the sunset from the sky.
Dear love, you're looking tired' he said
I smiling at him: shook my head:
'Tis now we're tired my heart & I.

So tired, so tired, my heart and I
Though now none takes me on his arm
To fold me close and kiss me warm
Till each quick breath end in a sigh
Of happy langour. Now alone
We lean upon this grave yard stone,
Uncheered, unkissed, my heart and I.

Tired out we are my heart & I.
Suppose the world brought diadems.
To tempt us, crusted with loose gems
Of powers & pleasures? Let it try.
We scarcely core to look at even
A prety child, or God's blue heavens
We feel so tired, my heart and I.

Yet who complains? my heart and I?
In this abundant earth no doubt
Is little room for things worn out:
Disdain them, break them, throw them by
And if bfore the days grew rough
We once were loved, used well enough
I think we've fared my heart & I.

In this quaint picture of feminine loveliness we find a more cheerful movement altho closing with the shadow of the grave;

Simple tuching Beautiful lines

The new England diadem gives the following beautiful verses which were suggested by the Sicness and death of Brown Owen who died on his passage to Californie.

Lay me nearer, brother, nearer
For my limbs are growing colder
And thy presence seemeth dearer
When thy arms around me fold
I am dying brother dying
Soon you'll miss me in your birth

For my form will soon be lying Neath the Ocean's briny Surf

Harken to me, brother, harken
I have something I would Say
Ere the vail my vision darkens
And I go from hence away
I am going Surely going:
But my hopes in God are Strong
I'm willing brother knowing
That he doth nothing wrong

Tell my Father when you greet him
That in death I prayed for him
Prayed that I may one day meet him
In a world thats free from sin
Tell my Mother God assist her
Now that she is growing old
Say her Child would glad have kissed her
When his lips grew pale & cold

Listen brother, catch each whisper
Tis my wife I'd Speak of now
Tell O tell her how I miss her
When the fever burns my brow

Tell her brother closely listen
Dont forget a single word
That in death Eyes did glisten
With the tears her memory stir'd

Tell her She must kiss my Children
Like the kiss I last impressed
Hold them as when last I held them
Floted closeily to my breast
Give them early to their maker
Puting all their trust in God
And he never will forsake her
For he said so in his word

O my children! Heaven bless them
They were all my life to me
Would I once more could caress them
Ere I sink beneath the sea
T'was for them I crossed the Ocean
What my hopes were I'll not tell
But I've gained an Orphans portion
Yet he doth all things well

Tell my sister I remember
Every kindly parting word
And my heart has been kept tender
By the thoughts their memory stirred
Tell them I never reached the heaven
Where I sought the' precious dust
But I've found a port Called Heaven
Where the gold, will never rust

Urge them to secure an entrance
For they find their brother there
Faith in Jesus and repentence
Will secure for each a share
Hark. I hear my Savior Speaking
Tis I know his voice so well
When I am gone O dont be weeping
Brother heres my last farewell.

The Sun had shed his Slanting rays
Oer hill and flowery lea
And Cooing dove and tinkling bell
Kept time with humming bee
The Robin breathed a warbling note
As she dropt into her nest
All nature was sinking into repose
Upon the broad Earths breast

The merry voice of childhood mirth
Came from the wildwood nook
The little boys had been to bathe
In the little winding brook
But soon they stoped with blank amaze
For there upon the shore
A little pile of garments lay
To be of use no more

And with what wild & frightened look
They tried to see who's gone
Then they piled into the brook
To see the little one
Its Johnny! a little voice then cried
For see! he is not here
O can it be that gentle boy

The one we love so dear
Ah! well they all rememberd then
One little hand thrown up
And how they thought it only play
That made him cast it up
They all in wild disorder ran
To Tell the woeful tale
And how we panic stricken were
As some ran down the vale

And soon we saw the little throng
With slow & mournful tread
One bore him to his bosom pressed
As one asleep, not dead
There in his arms how calm he lay
A smile upon his face
With half closed eyes, & parted lips
Where death had left no trace

We scattered rosebuds bright & fair
About his little form
Then laid him in yon shady dell
Away from Earths wild Storm
We know we have one less to night
But there is one more Angel bright

We have one less to love
But there is one more Angel bright
In the golden courts above

A true Story. By Annie R. Chamb s
Written June 1st 1862

On Kindnes

There is no pleasure near so sure
There is no comfort more secure
There is no happiness more pure
Than that which flows from kindness
There is no virtue shines more clear
There is no modest love more pure
And nothing can the soul more chee
Than universal kindness

There is no gem in human arts
No blessing such a prize imparts
None warms the love in human hearts
Like condescending kindness
Then let us walk this pretty way
And practice what we preach each day
And let what ever come that may We'll live and grow in kindness

A Funeral Hymn Sacred to the memory of Brother A. C. Housten

O Angelic spirit draw nigh
To witness a sorrowful scene
O hearken for now we do cry
For suffrings of spirits within A Brother an Elder a friend
Struck down in the days of his prime Whose justified spirit doth wend
Its way to a happier Clime.

2 Entwined in every heart
To Every soul he was meek near How sorrowful is it to part
With one who was loved so dear
We weep but our weeping is vain
Far far has he fled from this Shore
It filleth our vessels with pain
To think we shall see him no more

3 Tis true that the aged must go
Who have born the heat of the day
The young as do receive the same blow
And hasten and hasten away
